

Story About Privacy

Privacy means no one should see my body without my permission.

My body is private.

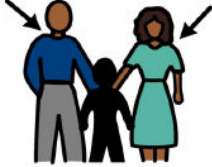

My body parts that can be covered by a bathing suit are private.

My vagina, bottom, and breasts are private.

My parents can see my private body parts with my permission.

My doctor can see my private parts during a medical exam with my permission.

No one else should see my private parts without my permission.

Some behaviors are private.

Getting dressed is a private behavior.

Going to the bathroom is a private behavior.

Some places are private.

No one can enter my space without my permission.

My bedroom is a private place.

When I want privacy in my room, I can close the door.

My bathroom at home is private.

The bathroom at school or work is not private. It is public.

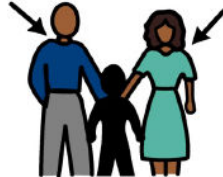

I can talk about private things with my parents at home.

I should not talk about private things when I am in public.

If I have questions I can talk to my parents.

Privacy means my body is special.

